Disclosure statement

To Whom It May Concern,

I received financial support from the European Research Council under the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme (FTP/2007-2013) / ERC Grant agreement no. 282740 during my work on the article

“Transmission of Monetary Policy with Heterogeneity in Household Portfolios”.

My wife and I did not receive any other financial support or pursue unpaid positions in relation to the research.

All best wishes,

Ralph Luetticke
