

Disclosure Statement for “Wired and Hired: Employment Effects of Subsidized Broadband Internet for Low-Income Americans”

July 16, 2020

George W. Zuo

The author declares that he was supported by funding through the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellow Program while writing this paper. The author also declares that the paper was fact-checked by the Director of Research at Internet Essentials. This external party did not influence the writing of the paper in any way beyond factual corrections.