

Disclosure Statement for “Behavioral Nudges Reduced Dropout Risk Among Vulnerable Students During the Pandemic: Experimental Evidence from Brazil”

This research has been funded by Instituto Sonho Grande. Instituto Sonho Grande and the Goiás State Secretariat of Education have granted access to the student-level data we use in the paper. None of them had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

I am a co-founder and chairman at Movva, the implementing partner for our Randomized Control Trial, from delivering the SMS nudges to managing SMS surveys with students. Movva powers Eduq+, the intervention evaluated in this paper.
