

Disclosure Statement: David N. Figlio

“Effects of maturing private school choice programs on public school students”

April 2022

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

The Shelter Hill Foundation provided some financial support to facilitate this research. The National Science Foundation, National Institutes of Child Health and Human Development, Institute of Education Sciences, and Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation provided initial grant support that facilitated the building of the dataset used in the present manuscript. No funder had any say over research design, conduct, or interpretation of findings.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I have not received more than $10,000 in the past three years from any party.

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

I do not hold such positions.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

No spousal or family-related potential COIs of which I am aware.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

6. IRB Approval

This project has been ruled exempt by the Northwestern University and University of Florida Institutional Review Boards.