I gratefully acknowledge financial support from the Chilean Research agency, ANID, through its “FONDECYT Iniciación” program. I received no financial support for this project, except for a paid assignment from DIPRES (the budget office of Chile) to write an initial report of the impacts. I hold no paid or unpaid positions at relevant organizations. The above disclosures apply to my close relatives and partner as well. No party has the right to review the substantive content of the paper prior to its circulation.
