

Disclosure Statement, Michael Geruso, July 2025

Sources of financial support for the research:

I receive salary as an associate professor of economics at the University of Texas at Austin. Although I received no specific research funding supporting this project, my health- and aging-related research is generally supported by NICHD grant P2CHD042849 and National Institute on Aging grant P30AG066614 awarded to the Population Research Center at UT-Austin.

Potentially relevant professional and financial relationships in the past 3 years:

I am a faculty affiliate of the Population Research Center and the Population Wellbeing Initiative at UT-Austin. For 2023-2024 I was on leave from UT-Austin and paid by the Executive Office of the President on an I.P.A. contract to serve at the Council of Economic Advisers as a Senior Economist. My work there covered US population trends and forecasts.

Paid or unpaid positions of relevant entities:

I serve, without payment, on the board r.i.c.e., a 501(c) public charity non-profit corporation (www.riceinstitute.org).

Spousal or family-related COIs:

None