

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Below are disclosure notifications for the paper Antitrust Enforcement in Labor Markets, by Elena Prager. These answers correspond to the AEA's disclosure policy questions, listed at <https://www.aeaweb.org/journals/policies/disclosure-policy>.

1. I did not receive any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above.
2. I am the recipient of a research grant from the Washington Center for Equitable Growth on topics related to labor market antitrust. I have not received any material financial support in the past three years from any other party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above.
3. I am not an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
4. None of my close relatives have received any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives have received any financial support in the past three years from a party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives are an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
5. No party besides the author had a right to review the paper prior to circulation.

Sincerely,

Elena Prager