

8 January 2026

With relation to the paper “Younger Firms and CEOs Allow More Work from Home”

I have not received honoraria, speaking or consulting fees, or in-kind benefits exceeding $10,000 from any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to this article. No individual, group, or organization had the right to review or withhold the results of this paper.

I routinely receive research support from Asociación Mexicana de Cultura A.C. by virtue of my academic position at Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM). I have also received research support or grants from the following organizations during my career:

- Templeton World Charity Foundation
- W.E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research
- Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation
- Stanford University (including from the Stanford Institute for Research in the Social Sciences and Stanford Institute for Economic Policy Research)

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Jose-Maria Barrero" followed by a stylized monogram or initials.

Jose Maria Barrero