To Whom It May Concern:

In regards to “Some Macroeconomic Evidence on Substitution between Clean and Dirty Energy”:

- The project received funding from the National Science Foundation (SES-2315408).
- In the last five years, I have also received at least $10,000 from the following sources: the World Bank, The IMF, and the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco.
- I also served on the Council of Economic Advisers in the Executive Office of the President. I continued to be employed and paid by Williams College at this time.
