

Dina Pomeranz – Disclosure Statement for “Dodging the Taxman: Firm Misreporting and Limits to Tax Enforcement”

Dina Pomeranz gratefully acknowledges funding from the Harvard Business School and data access from the Ecuadorian tax authority. She currently has an unpaid consulting agreement with the Chilean tax authority and she recently wrote a research report for Ernst & Young. She is on the board of Evidence Action and TamTam-Together Against Malaria. She received recent research support from J-PAL, IPA, IGC, the Harvard Weatherhead Center, the UBS Center of Economics in Society and the Weiss Family Fund. She is an affiliate of the Center for Global Development, J-PAL, the IGC, the NBER, the UBS Center of Economics in Society, CEPR and BREAD.