

Disclosure Statement for
" Gender Gap in High-Growth Ventures: Evidence From a University Venture Mentoring Program"

Author: Pian Shu

The author declares that she has no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

- 1) Every submitted article must state each source of financial support for the particular research it describes. If none, that fact should be stated.

The Entrepreneurship working group at NBER

- 2) Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years or that will exceed this threshold under contracts in place at the time of submission.

Division of Research at Harvard Business School; the Entrepreneurship working group at NBER; the Innovation Policy working group at NBER

- 3) Each author should disclose any and all paid or unpaid positions as an officer, director, corporate advisor, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities.

None

- 4) The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

None

- 5) Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

The Operations Manager of MIT Venture Mentoring Service reviewed the paper to ensure no sensitive information was disclosed. The review did not result in any changes.

Institutional Review Board (IRB) Approval

We have received IRB approvals from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the National University of Singapore, and Harvard University.