

Disclosure statement

Can Women Have Children and a Career? IV Evidence from IVF Treatments

Erik Plug

The paper “Can Women Have Children and a Career? IV Evidence from IVF Treatments” was written with financial support from the Swedish Council for Health, Working Life, and Welfare. Additional financial support was given by a research grant from the Institute for Evaluation of Labour Market and Education Policy.

The author declares that she has no other relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.